

STAFF CONDUCT WITH STUDENTS

The School District of Brodhead is committed to quality educational programs requiring integrity, high ideals, and human understanding. The welfare and achievement of students are dependent upon positive relationships within the school environment. Employees of the School District of Brodhead are to develop positive relationships with students by:

1. Maintaining empathy with respect for students.
2. Communicating with students in a way that fosters the development of a positive self-image.
3. Using discretion in handling confidential information about students.
4. Using credible, positive feedback with students.
5. Implementing motivation techniques that enhance self-esteem.
6. Modeling and reinforcing behaviors which are expected of students.
7. Utilizing problem-solving techniques in correcting and changing student behavior.
8. Helping students feel worthwhile by recognizing their strengths, abilities, and accomplishments.

The use of sarcasm, ridicule, insults, profanity, belittling statements, or sustained yelling will not be tolerated in the school environment.

Employees are expected to develop and expand their skills in sustaining positive student relationships. Employees are expected to maintain a proper professional and adult/child relationship with students.
